In the case of Clyde, the order of the Quarter Sessions was made on the 11th of December, 1835; and application was made forthwith. The County Commissioners declined compliance with the order of the Quarter Sessions, on the ground that there were no funds in the County Treasury applicable to this purpose. And now, on the return of the rule, Dallas for the County Commissioners, read their affidavit, setting forth in substance: That they had ascertained from the Treasurer of the County, that there did not exist at the time, and had not existed during the current year, adequate funds for the payment of the said damages; the moneys in the Treasury having been applied to the payment of claims of a prior date, and to the current expenses of the County. That the deficiency had arisen from circumstances beyond their control. Desirous to levy for the public exigencies a sufficient sum, at the highest rate authorized by law, to wit: at the rate of one cent in every dollar of the adjusted valuation of real and personal property, they submitted their exposition of the wants of the County to The County Board as they were bound to do, on the 20th of...
