Central has added improvements to the church costing $1800, to the increased attractiveness of their house of worship and increased comfort of the worshipers. St. Paul s new church was dedicated shortly after last Conference, Dr. Hanlon preaching in the morning and Rev. G. C. Haddock in the evening. Subscriptions were received amounting to $2700. Hamilton Avenue has determined to build. Their plans are adopted, subscriptions begun and all the people have a mind to work. The new building at Palmyra is in course of construction. Prior to commencing this work a Sabbath was devoted to raising funds. Dr. J. E. Smith, of State Street, preached the morning sermon. Over $5000 were secured during the day. The old church has been sold for $4000. In the midst of this enterprise Palmyra has paid Jroo on its parsonage debt and maintained its West Palmyra Mission. Among the finest improvements in the district, considering the ability of the people, are those of Allentown. About $1200 have been expended in repairs and decorations. Allentown may well be proud of its work and having paid all but a few dollars. The little church at Buddtown also has been entirely renovated within, and is now a neat and pleasant audience room. On the day of reopening the pastor was assisted by the Presiding Elder and Rev. G. H. Tullis. The total amount of cost was provided for on that day. The church at Beach Haven has this year paid...
