More importantly, they provide the perfect canvas for a coloring book. Coloring is something which has been associated for a long time with kids and it has been taken for granted that, as we reach maturity, we put aside our colored pencils and turn to more grown-up pursuits. However, in recent years we have witnessed this wisdom being overturned and coloring for grown-ups has become a widespread activity. But why has coloring for grown-ups become so popular? There are many reasons for the explosion in adult coloring, but here are just some. Coloring Relieves Stress And Anxiety Psychiatrists have known for a long time that coloring relaxes the fear center of the brain and allows your mind to get some rest. Indeed the founder of analytical psychology, Carl Jung, gave his patients mandalas to color more than 100 years ago. In the hectic world we inhabit today the stress relieving properties of coloring are perhaps more...
