Dead Mans Flower

By Jill Jennings

Yawn's Books & More, Inc. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 108 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in. Some years ago I was utterly entranced by Jill Jennings starkly honest poem, Hanging Out Laundry With My Grandmother. In it she shows us how to hang up our own griefs and failures to a redemptive sunlight. The world of her readers will surely respond by taking care of the real and metaphorical laundry that awaits our own tending. The title, Dead Mans Flower, cannot be better chosen. One can see the plumria as they really are, blooms that release their perfume only as they die, or as healing graces that come to us by feelings shared by poets who decide to live and write as Jennings has done. Mildred White Greear, poet and author of Moving Gone Dancing, and other volumes of verse. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
