It was in this visit to Edinburgh that Mrs. Balwhidder bought her silver tea-pot, and other ornamental articles; but this was not done as she assured me, in a vain spirit of bravery, which I could not have abided, but because it was well known, that tea draws better in a silver pot, and drink pleasanter in a china cup, than out of any other kind of cup or tea-pot. By the time I got home to the Manse, I had been three whole weeks and five days absent, which was more than all my absences together, from the time of my placing, and my people were glowing with satisfaction, when they saw us driving in a Glasgow chaise through the clachan to the Manse. The rest of the year was merely a quiet succession of small incidents, none of which...
