Who is to determine what penalties would conform, and what would be obnoxious to the rule? Penal laws are not to be enforced by such arbitrary sanction. But for present purposes the objection on that ground may be disregarded. The proceeding itself was irregular. Section 2 of the same law requires that all charges against a member shall be submitted in writing together with the signed name of the person or persons making said charges and specifying the offense which has been alleged to have been committed. The association will then appoint a committee whose duty it is to probe thoroughly into all the details of said charges and report as soon as possible its findings to the association. The only thing that can be called a charge submitted in writing is a resolution adopted by the...
