Addressed To Teachers Of Primary Schools Only. Me. C.C. Perkins, Chairman of meeting, briefly addressed the teachers. Mr. Smiths Address. It is now ten years since the Industrial Drawing Act of this State of Massachusetts was passed by the Legislature, approved by the Governor, and became law. By it the educational and industrial value of drawing was recognized. The place assigned to it was that of an element in general education on the plane of reading, writing, and arithmetic not an optional but a required study, and to instruction in which every child in Massachusetts, whether to the manor born, or the stranger within her gates, has an inalienable right. It is nearly ten years since the city of Boston, following her instincts of obedience to the law, and taking her claimed position as a leader in the van of educational progress, seriously set to work...
