Excerpt: .If tartar emetic, taken into the stomach, causes vomiting, causes the stomach to empty itself, then, if there is any thing in the stomach which we want out of it, it is a very natural conclusion that tartar emetic is good for making the stomach stand and deliver. It came by degrees to be noticed that opium caused sleepiness if swallowed; a million times opium was swallowed, and a million times were the recipients made sleepy; hence the very natural inference that opium was good for putting a man to sleep; and when men want to go to sleep, they know that they can do so if they swallow a little opium. Hence the various things which are used for remedies in disease have come by degrees into use--some by accident, others by induction, and all more or less relied upon. The general idea...
