[...]voice was not included in either of the three choruses of the sisterhood, stoutly defended Brother Friedsam, thinking, perhaps, that it was not a bad thing to have the conceit of the singers reduced; indeed, she was especially pleased that Tabea, the unsurpassed singer of the sisters gallery, should have suffered rebuke. At length it was agreed that Tabea should tell Brother Friedsam that the sisters did not intend to go to singing school again. Then Tabea lifted up her dark head and regarded the circle of women in white garments about her.[.].
