Why should the following be read like mere prose, without any certain pause, or division? And this verse of Ana.-. creon 1 , May we not suppose, that the iambic of Sophocles was read with some such divisions as these, Which are not very unlike those which we make use of in reading the above English alexandrine (or iambic) verse, It may be observed, that a Latin hexameter is essentially distinguished from a prose sentence, only by being terminated with a dactyle preceding a spondee; upon which account our manner of reading the endings of such hexameters as these, is probably wrong; for according to the modern fashion of pronouncing them, the whole verse doth not differ...
